Address; Motion for an Address of Thanks to His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, for the Most gracious Speech delivered by the Lords Commissioners by His Royal Highness's Command; Amendment proposed to be made thereto, by leaving out certain Words, in order to add other Words, Question that the Words proposed to be left out, stand part of the Question, Neg. Words added; main Question so amended being put; Resolution, for an Address of Thanks to His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, for the gracious Speech which he has directed to be delivered by the Lords Commissioners: To assure His Royal Highness that the House deeply participate in the sorrow felt by His Royal Highness, upon the continuance of His Majesty's lamented Indisposition: To return His Royal Highness their Thanks for having been graciously pleased to direct Copies of the last Reports of Her Majesty the Queen's Council to be laid before them; and to assure His Royal Highness, that they will adopt such measures as the present melancholy exigency may appear to require: Humbly to express their Satisfaction in learning that the measures that have been pursued for the Defence and Security of the Kingdom of Portugal, have proved completely effectual: To offer their humble Congratulations on the successful and brilliant Enterprize which terminated in the surprize, in Spanish Estremadura, of a French Corps, by a Detachment of the Allied Army under Lieutenant General Hill: To assure His Royal Highness, that while they reflect with Pride and Satisfaction on the Conduct of His Majesty's Troops and of the Allies, in these various and important Services; they concur with His Royal Highness, in rendering justice to the consummate Judgment and Skill displayed by General Lord Viscount Wellington in the direction of the Campaign: That they rejoice to find that in Spain the spirit of the People remains unshaken, and that a System of Warfare peculiarly adapted to the actual condition of the Spanish Nation, has been recently extended and improved; that although the great exertions of the Enemy have in some Quarters been attended with Success, they cordially concur with His Royal Highness, in admiring the Perseverance and Gallantry manifested by the Spanish Armies; and to assure His Royal Highness, that they will not fail to continue to afford the most effectual Aid and Assistance in Support of the Contest which the brave Nations of the Peninsula still maintain with such unabated Zeal and Resolution: To offer to His Royal Highness their hearty Congratulations on the Success of the British Arms in the Island of Java; and to assure His Royal Highness of their Concurrence in His Approbation of the wisdom and ability with which this Enterprize, as well as the Capture of the Islands of Bourbon and Mauritius, has been conducted under the immediate direction of the Governor General of India; and that they agree with His Royal Highness, in applauding the decision, gallantry, and spirit, of the brave Army under the command of Sir Samuel Auchmuty, so powerfully and ably supported by His Majesty's Naval Forces: To express the pleasure which they derive from considering, that by the completion of this System of Operations great additional Security will have been given to the British Commerce and Possessions in the East Indies; and the Colonial power of France will have been entirely extinguished: That they will not fail to take into their Consideration the propriety of providing such measures for the future Government of the British Possessions in India, as shall appear calculated to secure their internal Prosperity: To convey their humble Thanks to His Royal Highness, for the Information that while His Royal Highness regrets that various important subjects of difference with America still remain unadjusted, the difficulties which the affair of the Chesapeake Frigate had occasioned have been finally removed; and that He will continue to employ such means of conciliation as may be consistent with the Honour and Dignity of His Majesty's Crown, and with the due Maintenance of the Maritime and Commercial Rights and Interests of the British Empire: To return their humble Thanks for having directed the Estimates for the Service

1812.] INDEX to the SIXTY-SEVENTH VOLUME.

Service of the Current Year to be laid before them; and to assure His Royal Highness, that they will cheerfully furnish him with such Supplies as may be necessary to enable him to continue the Contest in which His Majesty is engaged, with that spirit and exertion which will afford the best prospect of its successful Termination: To assure His Royal Highness of their readiness to resume the consideration of the state of the Finances of Ireland; and to express their Satisfaction at the improved receipt of the Revenue of Ireland: To assure His Royal Highness, that the House is fully impressed with the sense of the arduous Duties which His Royal Highness has been called upon to fulfil, in consequence of His Majesty's continued Indisposition; and to express their confident persuasion that the Wisdom and Energy of His Royal Highness will enable Him, under the blessing of Divine Providence, successfully to discharge the Functions of his High Office, and in the name and on the behalf of our beloved Sovereign, to maintain unimpaired the Honour of His Majesty's Crown and the Prosperity of His People.
